Comments by Henrik Henriksson, President and CEO:

“Scania’s net sales rose to a record level of SEK 95 billion and earnings for the full year 2015 increased to SEK 9,641 m. Higher vehicle volume in Europe, record high service volume, positive currency rate effects and record earnings from Financial Services were partly offset by lower vehicle volume in Latin America, Eurasia and Asia. Total order bookings for trucks decreased during the fourth quarter, compared to the previous year, due to lower demand in Latin America and Eurasia. In Europe, demand remained high during the fourth quarter. Scania’s position in the European market is strong with a market share of 16.5 percent compared to 15.1 percent in 2014, thanks to a leading Euro 6 range. The continued segment focus and a broad engine range for alternative fuels, also contributed. Demand in Brazil and Russia fell during the fourth quarter compared to the same period 2014 and the outlook remains uncertain. Demand in Asia fell compared to the fourth quarter 2014. Order bookings in Buses and Coaches rose compared to the fourth quarter of the previous year. In Engines, order bookings fell during the fourth quarter compared to the previous year, due to lower demand in Latin America and Asia. Engine deliveries reached an all-time high at 8,485 units in 2015. Scania is continuing its long-term efforts to boost its service business and revenue increased by 9 percent to a new record level of SEK 20.6 billion during 2015. Scania’s continuing investment in connected vehicles is an important enabler in supporting our customers with more efficient services to further enhance their profitability. Financial Services reported record earnings, with operating income of more than SEK 1 billion. Customer payment capacity is still good and credit losses remain at low levels.”

Business overview

Sales performance

During the full year 2015, total vehicle deliveries decreased by 4 percent to 76,561 (79,782) units, compared to 2014. Net sales rose by 3 percent to SEK 94,897 (92,051), the highest level in Scania's history. Currency rate effects had a positive impact on sales of 4 percent.

Order bookings fell by 7 percent to 77,091 (82,984) vehicles, compared to the full year 2014.

Europe still strong, situation remains uncertain in Brazil and Russia

The decline in Scania's total order bookings for trucks compared to the fourth quarter of 2014 was mainly due to the low levels of demand in Latin America and Eurasia, which offset the higher levels in Europe. Total order bookings for trucks rose sequentially in the fourth quarter, mainly related to continued strong demand in Europe and the normal seasonal pattern in the European market.

Order bookings in Brazil and Russia fell, both compared to the fourth quarter of 2014 and sequentially. The outlook is still uncertain.

Through its global production system, Scania is able to balance the industrial system comparatively well by utilizing free production capacity in Brazil in order to export more to Africa, the Middle East and Asia.

Demand for used vehicles in Europe remains strong.

Scania increased its market share for trucks in Europe during 2015, which reached 16.5 percent during the year compared to 15.1 percent in 2014. The increase was connected to the early and successful introduction of the Euro 6 range and Scania's offer of a broad engine range for alternative fuels. Sales activities in new segments also had a positive impact on market share.

Strengthened position through partnerships

During 2015 Scania filed patent applications regarding 264 new inventions, which puts Scania at the top in Sweden. However, Scania's innovative capacity and technology leadership are dependent on collaboration with the right partners with different industries, research institutes and universities. Scania's research projects with academia and the private sector, such as the Integrated Transport Research Lab at the Stockholm's Royal Institute of technology, continued to be fruitful. During the year, the cooperation within Volkswagen Truck & Bus on current and future collaboration proceeded and, the cooperation with MAN on the development of common component platforms continued. Through collaboration and partnerships, Scania will be faster in responding to trends, adapting new technological developments and find new sustainable and efficient solutions.

Material risks and uncertainty factors

The section entitled "Risks and risk management" in Scania's Annual Report for 2014 describes Scania's strategic, operational, legal and financial risks. Note 2 of the same report provides a detailed account of key judgements and estimates. Note 27 of the same report describes the financial risks, such as currency risk and interest rate risk. The risks that have the greatest impact on financial performance and on reporting for the Group and the Parent Company are summarised as follows:

a) Sales with obligations

About 15 percent of the vehicles Scania sells are delivered with residual value obligations or repurchase obligations. These are recognised as operating lease contracts, with the consequence that recognition of revenue and earnings is allocated over the life of the obligation (contract). If there are major changes in the market value of used vehicles, this increases the risk of future losses when selling returned vehicles. When a residual value obligation is deemed likely to cause a future loss, a provision is made in cases where the expected loss exceeds the as-yet-unrecognised profit on the vehicle.

b) Credit risks

In its Financial Service operations, Scania has an exposure in the form of contractual future payments. This exposure is reduced by the collateral Scania has in the form of the right to repossess the underlying vehicle. In case the market value of the collateral does not cover the exposure to the customer, Scania runs a credit risk. Reserves for probable losses in Financial Service operations are set aside in the estimated amounts required.

Accounting principles

Scania applies International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the EU. This Interim Report for the Scania Group has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34, "Interim Financial Reporting" and the Annual Accounts Act. New and revised standards and interpretations that have been applied from 1 January 2015 have not had any significant impact on Scania's financial statements. Accounting principles and calculation methods are unchanged from those applied in the Annual Report for 2014.

The Year-end Report for the Parent Company, Scania AB, has been prepared in accordance with the Annual Accounts Act and recommendation RFR 2, "Accounting for Legal Entities" of the Swedish Financial Reporting Board.

Dividend and Annual General Meeting

Scania's Annual General Meeting for the financial year 2014 was held in Södertälje, Sweden on 26 June 2015. The Annual General Meeting determined that no dividend would be disbursed to shareholders for the financial year 2014.

In Scania AB, an Extraordinary General Meeting in December decided on a dividend of SEK 9,600 m. The dividend proposals decided by the board in 2014 and 2015 were never executed by the Annual General Meetings. The dividend of SEK 9,600 m. corresponds to approximately 50 percent of the net income for the financial years of 2013, 2014 and 2015. This is in line with Scania's historical benchmark of distributing approximately 50% of the net income to the shareholders. No changes are anticipated in relation to this historical benchmark.

Fair value of financial instruments

Amounts in SEK m. unless otherwise stated

In Scania's balance sheet, items carried at fair value are mainly derivatives and current investments. Fair value is established according to various levels, defined in IFRS 13, that reflect the extent to which market values have been utilised. Current investments and cash and cash equivalents are carried according to Level 1, i.e. quoted prices in active markets for identical assets, and amounted to SEK 3 089 m. (1,313). Other assets that are carried at fair value refer to derivatives. These assets are carried according to Level 2, which is based on data other than the quoted prices that are part of Level 1 and refer to directly or indirectly observable market data, such as discount rate and credit risk. These items are carried under Other non-current receivables SEK 594 m. (504), Other current receivables SEK 580 m. (644), Other non-current liabilities SEK 508 m. (706) and Other current liabilities SEK 411 m. (444).

For financial assets that are carried at amortised cost, book value amounts to SEK 59,188 (61,417) and fair value to SEK 59,329 (61,512). For financial liabilities that are carried at amortised cost, book value amounts to SEK 65,783 (56,448) and fair value to SEK 65,479 (56,718). Fair value of financial instruments such as trade receivables, trade payables and other non-interest-bearing financial assets and liabilities that are recognised at amortised cost minus any impairment losses, is regarded as coinciding with the carrying amount.

For further information about financial instruments, see Note 28 Financial instruments in Scania's Annual Report for 2015.
