1. Motions for additions to the agenda in accordance with section 122(2) of the AktG

Shareholders whose combined shareholdings amount to one-twentieth of the share capital or represent a proportionate interest of €500,000 (corresponding to 195,313 shares) may, in accordance with section 122(2) in conjunction with section 122(1) of the AktG, require items to be added to the agenda and published. Each new item must be accompanied by a reason or by a proposed resolution.

The notice requiring the new item to be added must be received by the Company, together with proof, issued by the shareholder's custodian bank, that the shareholders hold the minimum number of shares, by May 22, 2016, 24:00 exclusively to the following address:

Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft
HV-Stelle
Brieffach 1848
38436 Wolfsburg, Germany
Fax: +49-5361-95600100
or by e-mail to: hvstelle@volkswagen.de

Motions for additions to the agenda required to be published shall be published without delay following their receipt in the Bundesanzeiger (Federal Gazette) and shall be sent for publication to such media as can be expected to circulate the information throughout the European Union. In addition, they shall be published on the Company's website at www.volkswagenag.com/ir/agm and shall be communicated to shareholders in accordance with section 125(1) sentence 3 of the AktG.

2. Motions and proposals for election by shareholders in accordance with section 126(1) and section 127 of the AktG

Counter motions to proposals of the Board of Management and/or the Supervisory Board on specific agenda items, plus the reasons for them, and proposals for election must be submitted, together with evidence that the person filing the counter motion or making the proposal is a shareholder, exclusively to the following address by June 7, 2016, 24:00:

Volkswagen Aktiengesellschaft
HV-Stelle
Brieffach 1848
38436 Wolfsburg, Germany
Fax: +49-5361-95600100
or by e-mail to: hvstelle@volkswagen.de

Countermotions and proposals for election must be submitted in German. If they are also to be published in English, they must be accompanied by an English translation.

Countermotions and proposals for election will be published without delay on the Company's website at www.volkswagenag.com/ir/agm.

Any statements by the Management will also be published at the website shown above.

Countermotions and their reasons need not be made available, if

1. the Board of Management would commit an offence by doing so,
2. the countermotion would lead to an illegal resolution by the General Meeting, or to a resolution that infringes the Articles of Association,
3. the reasons given clearly contain erroneous or misleading information in material aspects, or if they contain defamations,
4. a countermotion by the shareholder based on the same subject matter has already been made available to a General Meeting of the Company in accordance with section 125 of the AktG,
5. the same countermotion by the shareholder with essentially the same reason has already been made available in relation to at least two General Meetings of the Company in accordance with section 125 of the AktG within the last five years and less than one-twentieth of the share capital represented at the General Meeting has voted in favor of it,
6. the shareholder indicates that he or she will not be attending the General Meeting and will not be represented at it, or
7. the shareholder did not present and did not have presented a countermotion submitted by him or her at two General Meetings in the last two years.

The same principles apply where proposals for election are to be made available. Furthermore, the Board of Management need not make available proposals for the election of members of the Supervisory Board and the auditors if these do not contain the name, practiced profession and place of residence of the proposed candidates (or the name and domicile in the case of legal entities) and if, in the case of proposals for election to the Supervisory Board, no information is provided on the candidates' memberships of other statutory supervisory boards. Information on their memberships of comparable German and foreign supervisory bodies of business enterprises should be attached.

The reasons for countermotions and proposals for election need not be made available if their total length exceeds 5,000 characters. If multiple shareholders submit countermotions on the same item for resolution or if they make the same proposals for election, the Board of Management is entitled to consolidate the countermotions or proposals and their respective reasons.

Shareholders' countermotions and proposals for election, when submitted to the Company in good time in advance, can only be included in the voting if they are presented during the General Meeting.

3. Right of information in accordance with section 131(1) of the AktG

Each shareholder who requests information on Company matters from the Board of Management at the General Meeting must be provided with such information to the extent that it is required for an adequate assessment of the relevant item on the agenda. The obligation to provide information also applies to the legal and business relationships of the Company with an affiliated company.

The Board of Management is entitled to refuse to provide information

1. if the provision of such information could, measured by prudent business judgment, cause damage that is not insignificant to the Company or an affiliated company;
2. insofar as it relates to carrying amounts for tax purposes or the amount of individual taxes;
3. relating to the difference between the carrying amount of items in the annual financial statements and a higher value for these items, unless the General Meeting adopts the annual financial statements;
4. relating to the accounting policies used, insofar as the information on these policies provided in the notes is sufficient to provide a true and fair view of the Company's net assets, financial position and results of operations as defined by section 264(2) of the Handelsgesetzbuch (HGB – German Commercial Code); however, this shall not apply if the General Meeting adopts the annual financial statements;
5. insofar as the Board of Management would commit an offence by providing such information;
6. insofar as the information has been made available continuously on the Company's website for at least seven days before, and at all times during, the General Meeting.

The Board of Management may not refuse to provide the information for other reasons.

If information has been made available to a shareholder in his or her capacity as a shareholder outside the General Meeting, it must be made available to all other shareholders at their request during the General Meeting, even if it is not required for the due and proper assessment of the item on the agenda. The Board of Management may not refuse to provide the information in accordance with numbers 1 to 4 above.

If a shareholder is refused information, he or she may demand that the question, together with the reason why the Board of Management refused to provide the information, be noted in the minutes of the meeting.
